Pregnancy Care Center Donations: The Ridgecrest Pregnancy Care Center is a faith-based limited medical center who's mission is to protect life and to be a voice for the voiceless. They are currently calling for donations. If you would like to support this organization and their mission, monetary donations can be sent in via any of our giving platforms (be sure to designate that it is for the pregnancy center) or by mailing them to the pregnancy center directly at 341 East Ridgecrest Blvd. Suite A, Ridgecrest CA 93555. For more information about this opportunity please see Cassandra Marie Hill or Jim Lannon.

Wandering Out of the Wilderness: Pastor Keith's home congregation Chester Avenue Community Church is hosting a camp-out event October 28-30. This camp-out will be a fun time of fellowship and worship. The deadline to register for this event is October 23, 2022. If interested, please see the pamphlet sent out in this week's bulletin email or for more information please see Cassandra Marie Hill or Pastor Keith.

Potluck & Team Meeting: Our Potluck and Team Meeting will be held October 9th in the fellowship hall. Please join us for lunch and the important meeting afterward. Your church is undergoing some major changes so your attendance is not only encouraged but absolutely essential.

Calling All Crafters!: Please join us for a fun morning of crafts every non-flex Saturday. All skill levels are welcome. For more information please contact Janet at 760-382-4382 or 760-375-4209. Come learn a new art skill and enjoy a wonderful time of fellowship.

Women's Bible Study: Please join the ladies of FBC as they study the book of Revelation. This Bible Study is offered every Thursday at 6 pm and is led by Lou Donnally.

Volunteer!: There are so many ways to get involved here at FBC Ridgecrest! Please consider serving God and your church through volunteering. Please see Jim Lannon or Dan McGinley for available volunteer opportunities.
